THE AUTUMN FESTIVAL OF NORFOLK

Welcome to the 5th year of HANSELLS HOSTRY FESTIVAL.

On behalf of our Principal sponsors Hansells Solicitors, The Dean & Chapter, the TEN Group, Voluntary Norfolk, and all our supporters, I am enormously proud to be in the position of announcing this year's line up of events to you.

2015 sees us focussing on the five major projects that have helped establish the festival as a unique and bespoke celebration of Norfolk talent:

THE NORFOLK ARTS AWARDS TOTAL ENSEMBLE THEATRE COMPANY PAINT OUT NORWICH | THE FESTIVAL PLAY CHAMBER ORCHESTRA ANGLIA

You will find all these plus other entirely original commissions in this brochure.

Follow us on twitter, facebook and on the website during the lead up to the festival, with coverage in the Eastern Daily Press and on BBC Radio Norfolk. What's so wonderful is we have already programmed the essentials for the next five years, with originality and ever increasing standards of work as the foundation for all we do.

We hope to see you at our Launch Event on Monday 7th September at The Hostry, and at one or many of our events in the half term period of October 19th to 31st 2015.

Best wishes.

When Stash Kirkbride and I set up the PBSK Partnership in 2010 in order to stage a play and a concert at The Hostry, we were aware of its potential, but even we didn't know the pace at which it would all develop. I am proud to be the philanthropic Patron of this freedom based, instinctive collective of individuals. We believe the arts flourish best where there is trust and the right atmosphere for people to develop ideas. Each year we seem to discover something new, something that has been waiting to happen, and I am always glad to oversee the captivatingly original projects that the festival delivers.

We have been blessed by the support from so many people and on behalf of the whole team, heart felt thanks to you all for the first five years of The Autumn Festival Of Norfolk, held at what must surely be one of the county's most prestigious and unique venues. The Hostry at Norwich Cathedral.

Peter Beck, Stash Kirkbride and Peter Barrow, in association with the Eastern Daily Press and Hansells Solicitors present

The 2015 Norfolk Arts Awards Saturday 19th September 2015 – 7pm at the Maddermarket Theatre

Welcome to The 2015 Norfolk Arts Awards. now in it's fourth year and already a staple of the county's arts event calendar. The awards celebrate oustanding achievement and the best of creative endeavour in the county over the past twelve months, and in some cases over a lifetime of working in the arts. Join us for this special event, now held at The Maddermarket Theatre, St Johns Alley, Pottergate, Norwich.

We are delighted to announce that this year's ceremony is being hosted by BBC Radio Norfolk's Nick Conrad and will be broadcast across the whole of Norfolk.

Our judging panel have travelled across the county to experience art in all its forms, from performances in intimate settings to large scale projects, to work that tells individual stories or brings together artists in collaboration. After much deliberation they have whittled down the nominations to bring you fourteen awards for this special event. Here's your opportunity to take part in the judging...

Who would you give an award to? Your favourite band, artist, venue or festival? To take part in the EDP People's Choice Award visit www.norfolkartsawards.com and cast your nomination now. Look out for announcements in the Eastern Daily Press.

Join us for this special event... The evening begins at 7pm with a bubbly and canapes reception before we move into the auditorium for the ceremony itself, where along with finding out who has won this year's awards, there will be entertainment from Lauren Dove. The Voxettes. Simon Brown, Simon Smith. Total Ensemble Theatre Company and a catwalk from Norwich Fashion Week.

Your evening continues with live jazz music in the gallery bar until 1am. Dress code: dinner jackets/evening wear.

Tickets are £15.00 and can be purchased from the Maddermarket Theatre on Box Office 01603 620 917 www.maddermarket.co.uk

We are so grateful to our supporters and sponsors, presenters and judging team, and the many volunteers who make this event happen.

En Plein Air Art Competition

'Paint Out' is a multi-faceted event aiming to redefine en plein air art practice. Our core event is the premier juried en plein air competition in the United Kingdom, celebrating the talents of national and international artists to a wide and growing audience in the heart of Medieval Norwich.

Event Dates

Call to Artists - Open Until July 31 October 20 - 22 Competition

October 23 Gala Exhibition Preview, Auction and Awards

October 24 - 30 Exhibition

October 31 - November 28 Exhibition at the Maddermarket Theatre

'Paint Out' Norwich, the UK's premier juried en plein air art competition, returns to the Hostry Festival by popular demand with a prize fund of £5,000. An eminent panel of judges from the Art World will ensure that the highest standards are maintained and that national and international artists will again bring their talents and ingenuity to the streets of Norwich.

This year's expanded event will see up to 50 artists taking part in the core event over the first two days. Artists will be given three hours, morning and afternoon, to complete work that will be exhibited at a Gala Preview and an auction hosted by TW Gaze in The Cathedral Hostry.

A new selection of landmarks around the city have been chosen to provide for diversity of approach and subject matter. A further addition to the proceedings will be a two-night, Nocturne event, where up to ten artists will immortalise the cityscape by night. The Maddermarket Theatre and St John Maddermarket Church. will act as the artists event hub throughout the week, where demonstrations and workshops will further contextualize the skills required for successful results in en plein air work. And Mousehold Heath, with its panoramic and inspiring views of the city, will witness all the artists taking part in a three hour 'Quick Draw' event on the third day, hosted in the auspicious surroundings of the Britannia Café.

Following the success of last year's People's Choice Award category, members of the public are again encouraged to vote for their favourite artist by visiting paintoutnorwich.org during the competition and exhibition. The winner will be announced in The Eastern Daily Press on Friday October 30.

CAST LIST

Siegfried Lipiner – David Green
Natalie Bauer Lachner – Ginny Porteous
Gustav Mahler – Christopher Neal
Anna von Mildenburg – Rebecca Aldred
Alma Schindler – Jess Taylor
Father Swider – Peter Barrow
Sigmund Freud – David Newham

Late 19th century Vienna. A time of change is beckoning, and a new artistic movement, the Vienna Secession, is emerging. Gustav Klimt shocks the arts world, Freud's ideas take hold – and progressive composer Gustav Mahler vies for the influential role of Director of the Court Opera.

In the apposite setting of the Cathedral's Hostry, we follow Mahler's torment over whether to sacrifice his faith for his career. The fates of Mahler, his young wife, Alma Schindler – an intimate of Klimt – and their fellow artists, play out in this passionate drama accompanied by Mahler's matchless music.

Music by Kenneth Ian Hytch

Composer Kenneth Ian Hÿtch first determined to write a dramatic piece for Lisa Cassidy after hearing her at The Hostry Festival in 2013. His search for an enigmatic and interesting character drew him to William Shakespeare's play. Macbeth and he decided to extract and set Lady Macbeth's speeches.

One of William Shakespeare's most complex and vividly painted female creations, Lady Macbeth finds herself in limbo, torturously re-living the events that lead to her ruination and death.

With the other players stripped away, we follow the solitary Lady Macbeth as she suffers the reminiscence of her inevitable undoing.

Pianist William Fergusson and violinist Elizabeth Marioram form the shadowy thrill of sound that accompanies Ladv Macbeth's cruel demise.

Youthful Genius: Mendelssohn, Mozart and Korngold

Saturday 24th October – 8pm at the Hostry, Norwich Cathedral

This specially commissioned concert features prodigies who wrote works of the highest quality at a tender age, transforming the way music was perceived.

Mendelssohn Octet This wonderful work created a new chamber music genre in the gossamer brilliance of the scherzo. Passionate. Daring. Tender. Defining the very essence of romanticism in music.

Korngold Sextet in D Maior

Korngold composed his Sextet at the age of 17 in 1914. A less familiar name than the others in this program, however his lyrical style came to dominate Hollywood film scores and he created some of the best film scores of the era.

Mozart Quintet in B flat

Mozart may be the best-known prodigy of all time. It would be possible to select for this concert almost any work he composed in his teens, but perhaps the best fit is his first quintet for two violins, two violas and cello.

75 Things I Wish My Parents Had Taught Me

"Wise and True Insights that Could Vastly Improve the Life of Any Child"

Patrick Reynolds grew up in the 70s in a poverty-stricken, Liverpool-Irish, working-class background - leaving school at 16 with no qualifications. His upbringing was very tough, however, he went on to do some good things in life.

Many years later with two children of his own he thought he would pass on a number of things he wishes his parents had taught him. Why 75? No reason other than it's all the things he could think of.
