

YOU AND I

Words & music by Stash Kirkbride

Verse 1: When I'm by your side the word stops turning,
And when it does so, everything seems fine.
Hold the faith, hold this precious feeling,
Remain with me for all time

Picture all the things we've ever dreamt of,
Easy if you just close your eyes,
And there'll be sunny days and a thousand ways
To show and tell I love you,
So believe in me, and we will be, untied once again

CHORUS: Gonna tell the world it's you and I, my angel
A better place since you came into my life
The ship of fools who wrote the rules
That friends can't last forever
We'll sail away, sail away, sail away together
It's you and I, you and I
For all time

Verse 2: With every day the sun comes up and shows us a new morning
Another chance to make it right and listen to our calling
We are the lucky ones
We've got it all to come
So believe in me and we will be
United once again

CHORUS: Gonna tell the world it's you and I, my angel
A better place since you came into my life
The ship of fools who wrote the rules
That friends can't last forever
We'll sail away, sail away, sail away together
It's you and I, you and I
For all time

Instrumental ~ guitar solo
