Words & Music by Stash Kirkbride

Verse 1: I believe in love, now I've met you.
Now I've met you, I believe in love.
Life was an empty shell for the boys talking.
I'd like to thank you from the heart, oh yeah.
I'd like to thank you, girl.

CHORUS: It's people like you and people like me,
We'll be making history by the end of the day.
And a love like yours and a love like mine doesn't happen all the time,
baby, believe me.
Oh whisper softly in my ear, the things you know I love to hear,
Those precious words that mean the world to me.

Verse 2: Tender love so real, such a feeling.
Don't try and tell me you don't care, oh no.
You see it was kinda my intention,
I wasn't gonna mention the fact that.
I'll be loving you, loving you
With those eyes of blue, I'll be loving you, for always.

CHORUS: It's people like you and people like me,
We'll be making history by the end of the day.
And a love like yours and a love like mine doesn't happen all the time,
baby, believe me.
Oh whisper softly in my ear, the things you know I love to hear,
Those precious words that mean the world to me.
History.

It's people like you and people like me,
We'll be making history by the end of the day.
And a love like yours and a love like mine,
Doesn't happen all the time, Baby, believe me.
Oh, whisper softly in my ear, the things you know I love to hear,
Those precious words that mean the world to me.

It's people like you and people like me,
we'll be making history by the end of the day.
And a love like yours and a love like mine,
Doesn't happen all the time, baby, believe me.
Oh whisper softly in my ear, the things you know I love to hear,
those precious words that mean the world to me.
It's people like you and people like me,
we'll be making history, by the end of the day.
