Words by Stash Kirkbride & John Hunter, with additional words by Angie Giles. Music by Stash Kirkbride.

VERSE 1: Here, in your arms, through the nighttime I'll remain,
Ever yours, this devine love, takes my very breath away.

CHORUS: Maybe someday, love will find a way.
In the morning we'll make love again.
When will we share precious moments?
Maybe someday

VR2: What compares, to the feel, of your body close to mine?
Touching skin, I breathe you in, if only in my mind

CHORUS: Maybe someday, love will find a way.
In the morning we'll make love again.
When will we share precious moments?
Maybe someday.

Maybe Someday, Maybe Someday.

Middle 8: People change and rearrange,
Nothing stays the same.
But given half a chance, baby,
We can make it ...
Someday.

CHORUS: Maybe someday, love will find a way.
Maybe oh someday, love will find a way.
Maybe Someday, Maybe someday. Maybe someday.
