

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO THE NICE GUY

Words & music by Stash Kirkbride (In memory of his late father)

Verse 1: So every man has to die,
and I know men aren't meant to cry.

CHORUS: So tell me, whatever happened to the nice guy?
Whatever happened to him?
Whatever happened to the nice guy?
He's just kicking up daisies.
Such a pitty, such a pitty, such a pitty.
For I have a little bouquet, yeah, for him.

VR2: You either loved or hated him.
There was no in between.
And I just wish I could introduce you
But I don't hold the key to heaven.

CHORUS: So tell me, whatever happened to the nice guy?
Whatever happened to him?
Whatever happened to the nice guy?
He's just kicking up daisies.
Such a pitty, such a pitty, such a pitty
For I have a little bouquet, for him.

INSTRUMENTAL

Ride Out: Say you remember, say you remember my daddy
Say you remember, say you remember him
Say you remember, say you remember
Say you remember, say you remember my daddy
Say you remember, say you remember him
Say you remember, say you remember my daddy
Say you remember, say you remember him
Remember my daddy

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO THE NICE GUY © Produced by Stash & All Quiet Band 1988 www.stashkirkbride.com sk@stashkirkbride.com