

YOU ARE MY LIFE (original 1986 Duet or solo)

Words by Stash Kirkbride & Neil Sutton. Music by Stash Kirkbride.

*2nd verse in 2023 production with Jose McGill, by Stash Kirkbride & Jose McGill**

Verse 1: You are my life, through you I breathe,
My world would end if you should ever leave.

You came to me, you set me free,
My heart was torn but now I'm born again.

Bridge: Memories ever made when I am with you,
Time won't let them fade and say adieu.

CHORUS: Blossoms in the spring, birds upon the wing,
This is everything our love is, this is what you are.
The moon that rules the tide, life's carousel we'll ride,
This is everything our love is, this is what you are to me.

Verse 2: 1986: You dried my tears, dispelled my fears,
I see the world with brand new eyes.

Verse 2: 2023: Way back when, you helped me mend,
The broken pieces of this heart of mine.
Day by day, we live and learn,
Come take my hand, fly away with me.

Bridge: Memories ever made when I'm with you,
Time won't let them fade and say adieu.

CHORUS: Blossoms in the spring, birds upon the wing,
This is everything our love is, this is what you are.
The moon that rules the tide, life's carousel will ride,
This is everything our love is, this is what you are to me.

You are my life, through you I breathe,
My world would end if you should ever leave.
